

Please support true democracy and allow public debate on this very important issue of media regulation. Media is a servant of our democracy and not it's owner. We can ill afford to watch our outlets of information turn into a monstrous monopoly.